

Checking Me Out!

There you are across the room. You looked right through me and killed my mood.

(I know) Don't lie to me girl I know your checking me out!

You turned and walked my way.

With your sweet cinnamon face you make the minutes feel like days.

(I know) Don't stray from me girl I know you're checking me out!

(I know) you're standing there

Without a care

Your long brown hair (I know, I know your)

My spinning head

Don't make me beg

Your sturdy legs (I know)

I know you're checking me out!

Intimidated by your heavenly presence and longing for your tender essence.

(I know) Don't let me down girl I know you're checking me out!

You turned and walked my way.

You walked right through me I breathe your air and taste you everywhere.

(I know) Don't lie to me girl I know you're checking me out!

(I know)Don't try to hide
Your looking lies with
Your Spanish eyes (I know, I know you're)
All the while
I'll crawl for miles
Just to see your smile (I Know)
I know you're checking me out!

You passed right by me you make me high. I lock my eyes on your cheating thighs.

(I know) please don't lie to me girl I know you're checking me out!

You turned and walked my way.

On a bed of nails, bare foot on coals. I take my toll, naked and cold.

(I know) I wont lie to you girl I know you're checking me out!

(I know)Your cinnamon skin
Your long brown hair
Your sturdy legs (I know I know you're)
Your Spanish eyes
Your cheating thighs
Your soft sweet smile (I know)
I know I'm checking you out!
