

Face to Face!

How about a drink? Well what do you think?

Perhaps another time, another place,

You and I face to face.

How about a dance? You put me under your trance.

Hand and hand, woman and man,

You and me that's where I wanna be.

How about a kiss from your sweet rose pedal lips? Side by side my heart open wide.

We lay like spoons together you and I.

How about it love? You're the one I dream of.

Eye to eye, no spoken lies cause

I am complete when it's you and I.

Perhaps it's all a fantasy the way I feel for you I fancy.

Arm and arm I protect you from all types of harm.

Don't wake from this dream I have of being face to face.

Face To Face!
