

Find Myself Somehow

I've been someone else for some time now.

I'm afraid to say I'm not proud of my ways.

I've been living a lie somehow; no more I don't want to play.

I've had better days!

I think it's time I left you behind for something else that's new.

I think it's time I left you behind, ain't that the truth?

I've got to find myself somehow, I've got to say good bye to you.

I've blinded myself till now.

I've got to make myself be true.

I've got to find myself somehow, I've got to make it better.

I've got time on my side for now.

I've been through some nasty weather.

I've been thinking for some time now.

About this life of mine, a better way I've got to find.

I've been thinking of how and why did I get to be this way?

I don't want no more of yesterday!

I think it's time I lost this face for one that's new.

I think it's time I got outta this place; it's time for me to break loose.

I've got to find myself somehow, I've got to find a life that's new.

I've got to find my way around.

I've got these blinders on.

I've got to find myself somehow, and be with someone new.

I've got to bide my time with truth,

And loosen up this noose.

Till now I was just a run around. I thought it would make me happy.

This new carefree life I found.

Till now I never realized how much I need you and how much I want to make you happy.

What I hide oh God if you only knew.

And now I realize how much I want you and how much I want to make you happy.

I want you; I need you my love and only you.

I've got to find myself somehow. Goodbye, goodbye.

I'll find myself right now.

Yea, Yea, Yea!

I've got to find myself right now. I'll keep my feet right on the ground.

Time, Time, Time!

Is on my side!
