

GONE IN A FLASH!

Gone in a flash!

It all came down in one big crash.

Gone in a flash, your father was taken from your arms.

Now your mother is alone to keep you from harm.

Dry your crying eyes my child.

Wipe away all your tears.

In some short while,

The great one is coming to wipe away all your tears.

Those who made you suffer,

Will suffer then first.

And their suffering will then last.

It shall quench your longing thirst.

We've been through in the past.

Gone in a flash!

It all came down in dust and ash.

Gone in a flash, you're all alone in the world.

Such an innocent child, just a little girl.

Wash your hands clean from hate.

Hold close the thoughts that bind you to your fate.

Before you know it the time will be here,

When the Great One will make it all so clear.

Those who made you cry,

Will cry in the end.

And your suffering will then mend.

The faithful one will stand last,

And your heavy heart will leave you fast.

Gone in a flash!

It all came down in one swift wave

Gone in a flash stealing the lives of the brave.

Now your father, mother, sister and brother mourn over your toppled grave.

Gone in a flash!

It all came down and now it's past.

But we will not forget for the rest of our days,

We will not regret our freedom ways.
