

In my minds eye!

In my minds eye my dream girl takes to your form.

And as I sing this Ill prove to that I am not wrong.

Your eyes shine bright with a love I cannot explain.

Your lips sing kiss me and I cannot refrain.

Your hair is of pure silk as I lay it upon my chest.

Cause by your side only is where I must rest.

Your breath is a cool breeze on a hot summer's day.

I breathe your air and become hypnotized in such a way.

With your hands you have all the warmest touch.

While in your arms only I want to be so very much.

Your skin is pure honey so sweet and so warm.

In my minds eye my dream girl takes to your form.

I sing these words to you so you know these thoughts of mine.

Simply to ask you would you be mine?

In My Minds Eye!
