

It'sYou!

It's your loving stare.

For one moment I wish not to miss.

My soul to you I only share.

It's your oh sweet kiss.

It's the look in your eyes.

It's the sound of your voice.

When you speak such loving lies

With this passion I make my choice.

It's you that makes me dream ay night.

It's you that I want to hold so tight.

It's you that makes me feel oh so right.

And when you leave

Like the day the night.

When you leave

Quietly without a fight.

When you leave

I'll be your hopeless fool.

When you leave in the night only darkness I find.

And, in the darkness only borrowed love is kind.

It's your sweet embrace.

You make me feel I'm a man.

Oh that beautiful face.

It's the touch of your warm soft hands.

It's the smell of your skin.

It's the flow of your hair.

Oh how I fight to win

This battle for two is so unfair.

It's you I long to be by your side.

It's for you my arms are open so wide.

And it's for you that I give up this fight.

And when you leave me

I stand no chance to change your mind.

When you leave me

For a second glance would you have the time?

When you leave me

Please take your time.

When you leave me I'll do all I can.

This foolish man turned back to boy from man.

I stand no chance on this cold dark night.

I can have you, I imagine even twice.

I can have you once more if you name your price.

Please don't leave me.

Take your time (please be kind).

Please don't leave me now.

Stay awhile!

Please don't leave girl

I beg you please!

And when you leave me behind you close the door.

It's you!
