

Saying a Prayer! (Shine Through)

You let me drown in my tears.

I've watched my life fade to sorrow.

I've tried to fight all my fears.

Alone I wait for tomorrow.

Got to get you out of my mind.

In my heart your scars you will find.

Got to get you back in my life.

I'm saying a prayer for you.

Guided by the light of my love for you.

Don't you know there's people who care about you?

I'm letting my love shine through!

I feel the wind on my face

It could not feel any better

I see the lines on your face

Have you been reading my letters? (I hope so)

Got to get you out of my mind.

In my heart your scars you will find.

Got to get you back in my life.

I'm saying a prayer for you.

Guided by the light of my love that's true.

Don't you know there's people who care about you?

I'm letting my love shine through!

I'm letting my love, letting my love

I'm letting my love shine through.

Saying a Prayer!
