

The Saddest Days

Baby, I just don't know what to do after loving you for so long.

Baby, I just don't know where I am gonna go to find another love worth dreaming of.

And now you ask me if I'm fine. Yes I'll be fine without you by my side.

Maybe, you just may change what you decide to call your life without me by your side.

These are the saddest days of my life.

I should have kissed you every chance I had.

Oh man, I lost my best friend.

It's more than this poor heart can stand.

Baby, I just don't know what I'm gonna say after saying "I love you" wasn't enough.

Baby, I just don't know why we have to say goodbye after all this time with you by my side.

And, now I just don't know where I'm going, left or right, day or night but, I'll be fine.

Maybe, you just might stay in my arms please don't harm, take my hand and I will keep you warm.

These are the saddest days of my life.

I'm lonely with without you, thought you'd always be here.

I'll miss your hands and your bright blue eyes.

Oh man I lost my best friend that I ever had.

The Saddest Days!

It's more than this poor heart can stand.
