

Alone In the Night!

Here I am wanting you wanting me.

Alone again, in the night.

Telling myself it will be all right.

Here I am waiting for you to call on me

Alone again, tonight.

With this feeling that you might!

I'm your man, I need you now to hold my hand.

Alone I am, I don't want to fight.

I tell myself I'll hold you tight.

I'm your man, here I am your biggest fan.

Alone again without you girl by my side.

With this feeling that you might.

Call on me tonight!

Call on me, alright!

Call for me and end my fight with these fears.

Alone again is how I end up every time.

All alone again, I feel so cold and then,

I have this feeling that you might

Lend a hand to this needy man.

Begin my healing and end this fight, Alone again that's how it ends.

Now I can look forward to a brighter day.

Alone I am, it doesn't have to be this way,
Telling myself you just might stay.

Now I can say to you I am just for me.

Alone again but that's alright,
With this feeling that I might

Fall for you tonight!

Fall for you, alright?

Fall for you and lose this fight with my fears.

Alone my friend is how you'll end up every time.

Alone, All alone again, you feel so cold and then,

You'll have a feeling that I might,

Want to fend for this cold woman.

Who never cared till she had to bare being alone again in the end.

Call for me and end this fight!

Alone again, my friend every time!

All alone again, I'm so cold inside.

Can you feel this feeling in the night?

I'll be your needy man, your biggest fan.

Reach for me and we won't be alone again, till the end of time.

Alone In the Night!
