MEMORANDUM FOR District Team Members

SUBJECT: World Trade Center Commemorative Jacket Award

1. I am pleased to award you this commemorative World Trade Center jacket for your actions during and after September 11, 2001. During this national tragedy you displayed the characteristics which truly reflect your pride in public service. Your resiliency and completion of the District's missions in the aftermath of September 11th was representative of New York District's "can do" spirit and was appreciated not only by me but by the entire U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Wear it with the pride that comes from being a member of the Corps' family.
2. Essayons!
