

I can't believe

He looked at me in my eyes

One last time before he went to sleep.

I can't believe

I will never again get to see

Your eyes of blue

Looking back at me

He held my hand and I held his

We never let go, as he went to sleep

I can't believe

Never again will we

Hold each other again

Arm and arm, Hand and hand

Yes I loved him and he loved me

Heart to heart our love will always be

So I can't believe

We have to say good bye you and me.

So sleep now as now you are in peace

I will see you again my father soon in my dreams
